

CHINA – TREK THE GREAT WALL
20 April – 30 April 2007 & 18 October – 28 October 2007
17 April – 27 April 2008 & 16 October – 26 October 2008

Stretching 6000km in a dotted line across China, the Great Wall was begun in the 5th Century BC. As it snakes across the mountains it conjures up an incredible sense of history – and connects us to the vast remoteness of rural China.

Our trek is very varied, as we pass through woodland and terraced farmland, following the contours of these beautiful mountains north of Beijing – almost always within sight of the Great Wall.

This challenge is physically demanding but very rewarding, offering fabulous scenery, unparalleled views of the Great Wall, and a fascinating insight into a rich culture and history.
